

Commissioner Bonnie A. Bulla

Discovery Commissioner
Eighth Judicial District Court
Regional Justice Center
200 Lewis Avenue
Las Vegas, NV 89155

Bonnie A. Bulla was appointed Discovery Commissioner for the Eighth Judicial District Court in January 2007. She graduated Summa Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa with a B.S. degree in Economics from Arizona State University in 1984. She received her J.D. degree from Arizona State University in 1987 and moved to Las Vegas, Nevada. She has been a member of the Nevada Bar since 1987. While in private practice, she primarily handled cases involving professional negligence.

She was a member of the American Bar Association where she served as Speaker of the Young Lawyers Division. She was a past president of the Southern Nevada Association of Women Attorneys. She has also been a member of the Nevada Trial Lawyers Association, now known as the Nevada Justice Association, the American Trial Lawyers Association and the Defense Research Institute.

Ms. Bulla has conducted the following seminars: "Nursing Documentation and Related Issues", "The Medical Dental Screening Panel Process", "Physician Profiling", "The Successful Motion to Compel", "Deposition Issues", "Discovery with 21st Century Technology", "The Art Crafting the Successful Request for Admission", "Dynamic Discovery", "The Five Common Mistakes Made During Discovery", "Discovery: The Year in Review", "Discovery Tips, Challenges, Techniques and Strategies", "The Effective Use of Two Under Utilized Discovery Tools" and "E-Discovery". Ms. Bulla has also participated in the "NITA Deposition Program" at UNLV's Boyd School of Law. She also participates in the Trial by Peers Program and coaches soccer for children with disabilities.