

Richard Cunningham

Richard Cunningham is an associate with Lionel, Sawyer & Collins. He graduated from the University of Washington with a J.D. degree in June 2000. He received his LL.M. in Taxation in 2001. His experience is in Trusts and Estates and Taxation. He has been a presenter and author numerous times on such topics including Estate Planning in Nevada, Estate Planning Considerations in Divorce, Sophisticated Asset and Wealth Protection Techniques in Nevada, Probate Litigation, How to Probate an Estate.

Greg Carlson

Greg Carlson is an associate with Lionel, Sawyer & Collins. He graduated from the University of California, Hastings, with a J.D. degree in 2005. He received his Masters of Accountancy in Tax from Brigham Young University in 2005. Mr. Carlson is a certified public accountant licensed in Florida. His experience is in business law and tax and estate planning.